Château Léoube, Rosé de Léoube

AC Côtes de Provence
Estate Grown & Bottled

This is very much a rosé of elegance rather than power, a wine that grows in confidence as each mouthful is savoured.
The delicate aromas reveal scents of honey and soft red fruits, both of which emerge as the wine warms in the mouth. There is an unmistakable scent of mint, evoking the herbs that grow wild around the vineyards. Even the nearby sea seems to have left its mark in the appetising, lightly salty finish.
This is a very complete wine, notable for its harmony, freshness and sheer drinkability. Assured, understated and refined, a highly accomplished Provence Rosé.
