J. CHIVITE FAMILY ESTATES

Chivite Las Fincas Blanco

The Estate: Founded in 1647, Chivite is one of the oldest wine dynasties in Spain, with eleven generations of the Chivite family passing down the winemaking tradition. They produce traditional wines in the 3 Riberas region, a protected area including Ribera Alta, Ribera Baja, and Ribera del Duero, and are one of the original founders of the D.O. Navarra Regulating Commission. Winemaker: David González.

Location: I.G.P. Vino de la Tierra 3 Riberas, Navarra, Spain.

Varietals: 100% Garnacha Blanca

Vinification: Using the saignée method, the free-run juice of Garnacha Blanca is collected, with 100% fermented in stainless steel tanks.

Aging: Aging on the lees is crucial for its delicate expression on the palate.

Alcohol: 13.5%

Tasting Notes: Fresh and sweet entry with some creaminess, voluminous. Long and refreshing finish. High aromatic intensity with floral notes, white stone fruits, and a subtle citrus and herbal background.

Food Pairing: This vegan wine is good company for raw or steamed fish and shellfish, and a good counterpoint to dishes made with butter or with other white wines.
