AP WINE IMPORTS

FATTORIA DI BACCHERETO

Vino Rosso Terre a Mano

The Estate: Biodynamic producer in Carmignano DOCG, Italy's smallest appellation. Owned by Rossella Bencini Tesi, who adopted sustainable methods in 2000. Specializes in Carmignano wines from this historic appellation west of Florence.

Location: Tuscany, Italy. The Bacchereto estate in the township of Carmignano. Altitude 250-300 meters.

Age of the Vines: Planted in 1972, 1993, 2004

Vines: Organic production. Manual harvest during the first week of October.

Varietals: 100% Sangiovese

Vinification: Traditional, in epoxy-lined concrete vats without the addition of selected yeasts or other enological adjustments. No clarification or filtration.

Aging: 12 months in 350 liter (90 gallon) Allier oak barrels. No new barrels.

Tasting Notes: Ruby red color. The bouquet is penetrating, clean, and fruity. On the palate, it is juicy with strong tannins.

Food Pairing: A versatile wine for everyday meals.

Cellaring: Good cellaring potential

