AP WINE IMPORTS

MOKOROA

Txakoli

The Estate: Mokoroa is a family-owned winery founded in 2008 by Jose Antonio Mokoroa. Located 700 feet above sea level in Zarautz, near Getaria in the Basque Country, Spain, the entire Mokoroa family is involved in the winery.

Location: Getariako Txakolina DO, Basque Country, Spain.

Production Area: 6 hectares

Varietals: 85% Hondarrabi Zuri, 15% Chardonnay

Vinification: Grapes are crushed and immediately taken to the press after an 18 hour maceration. The juice is fermented at controlled temperatures, avoiding the presence of oxygen as much as possible.

Alcohol: 11.0%

Tasting Notes: Greenish yellow color. Pears, green apple, citrus fruits, fresh peppermint, eucalyptus, mineral notes, and white peppercorns on the nose. Refreshing, well-balanced, with a lot of volume and a long finish. Typical bitters of the Hondarrabi Zuri variety appear on the palate.

Food Pairing: Ideal as an aperitif, or paired with fish or appetizers with salty or sour flavors.

